SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - FUSION LIBOR + 800 CURRENCY UCITS FUND

Report from the Investment Manager

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - FUSION LIBOR + 800 CURRENCY UCITS FUND (the Sub-Fund) launched in December 2010. In 2011 the Manager experienced the complete operational cycle for the first time and successfully put in place the processes and practices necessary for optimal management of the Fund.

There was a strong risk rally in January 2012, contributing to positive performance of around 2% for the Sub-Fund. Between February and April the correlation between interest rates and FX began to weaken, and the Sub-Fund lost around 5%. From May to August, the FX market was dominated by Eurozone worries and risky currencies became volatile with hi-to-low swings of around 8% for that period. During this period, the Sub-Fund did not lose value and managed to withstand the volatility. From September to December, the Sub-Fund lost 1.06% in non-trending markets and persistent verbal market interventions from US and European officials.

There were some redemptions from the Sub-Fund in the early part of the year.

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - RAB PRIME EUROPE UCITS FUND

Report from the Investment Manager

The Net Asset Values of the shares of SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - RAB PRIME EUROPE UCITS FUND (the "Sub-Fund") on 31st December 2012 are shown on page 22 of the attached Financial Statements. The Sub-Fund's headline tracking shares (Class EUR-I) ended the year up 5.5%.

The equity markets continued to be volatile but most markets ended the year significantly up. The MSCI Europe Local Currency closed the year up 13.4%. In the US, the S&P500 index closed up 13.3% in US$ terms. The Euro continued to weaken relative to the US$ at the start of the year but ended up 1.8%. Commodities were mainly up. Oil was up 3.5%. Gold was up 7.1%, the 12th positive year in a row although it came off its highs having rallied at the start of the year and also in Q3 and early Q4. Of the other metals the main exception to the positive year was Nickel. Agriculture commodities were more mixed with coffee and cotton down significantly. Yields ended further down following the collapse in 2011. The 10-year Euro T-bond yields fell 51bp, while their US counterparts gave up 12bp.

Last year we said that not everything in life is predictable. Again 2012 was a good example of that. The market optimism came despite the continuing sovereign debt crisis in Europe and the fiscal cliff debacle in the US. Credit rating agencies continued to review and downgrade certain countries within the European Union. The European sovereign debt crisis has been postponed but probably not averted by Draghi's pledge in Q3 to fully support the euro. This may be the start of the closer fiscal and economic integration, for those that are part of the common currency, which we predicted last year. As yet, however, there is no clear path towards the required further integration in exchange for mutualisation of sovereign debt.

Policies to stimulate growth are still few and far between as governments continue to debate on whether their budget deficits and spiralling debt should be addressed by cost cutting and/or tax increases, as was played out in the US with the fiscal cliff drama being taken right up to the wire at year end.

Despite this, and the fact that the markets have already rallied considerably from last year's lows, we still believe that there is still considerable value in European equity markets.

For extended periods of the year, however, we remained unconvinced about any immediate recovery and we, therefore, held the long exposure of the Sub-Fund's core portfolio at well below 100% for extended periods and the net exposure was generally held between 70-80%. In June we took the net exposure to under 60% and with hedging the overall net exposure to as low as 33%.

The main sectors that showed positive returns for the Sub-Fund this year were, in order of magnitude, technology, telecoms, finance and healthcare. The largest positive returns came from the following companies within those sectors:

Technology - Gemalto, Playtech, Technicolor and Ingenico

Telecoms - Cable & Wireless and Zon Multimedia

Financial - Wirecard

Healthcare - Coloplast and Novo Nordisk

Cable & Wireless had the largest positive return for the year which was a trade based on the potential takeover.

The mainly positive returns from stocks were, however, in part offset by losses in the hedge book.

A more in-depth analysis of the Sub-Fund, including disclosures on the risk profile of the Sub-Fund, can be found in the Sub-Fund's monthly newsletters.

Due to known redemptions at the time together with our inability to attract new investors, we felt it best to recommend to the Directors to wind up the Sub-Fund as the level of non-trading expenses per share were going to exceed 2.5% per annum. Whilst unfortunate, given our view that the markets over the foreseeable future will favour stock picking managers, it was hard to justify the level of expenses on this type of strategy without reasonable expectations of a successful marketing campaign.

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - CONSCENDO OIL & ENERGY UCITS FUND

Report from the Investment Manager

2012 was a turbulent year for the world economy. The European debt crises loomed over the markets, accompanied by deteriorating GDP's and the "The fiscal cliff". SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - CONSCENDO OIL & ENERGY UCITS FUND posted a negative result for 2012, mainly triggered by fluctuations in energy stocks towards the end of the year. The Sub-Fund did not take excessive risk throughout the year, which is somewhat reflected in the VaR. We would argue in hindsight that we should have had a long bias, but argue as well that the macro environment pushed our strategy towards capital preservation.

The investment manager, Conscendo Equity, is more optimistic for 2013, the main reasons being, a strong and stable oil price combined with a strong predicted growth in the Norwegian oil and energy sector. In addition do we see some signs of declining focus on the European debt crises as well as bottoming housing prices in the U.S. However, the markets will, in our view, only get propelled further by continuous money printing, and this scheme is not without risk.

Investment managers will keep a close eye on revenue generation in its oil and energy positions in the portfolio. Some main holdings being Aker Solutiona, Statoil, Subsea 7, Dolphin Group, and Det Norske Oljeselskap in 2012. In 2012, the Sub-Fund was somewhat exposed to corporate bonds, in AP Møller Maersk, Lyse Energi, and Statkraft.

We will continue to strive for good risk adjusted results for SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - CONSCENDO OIL & ENERGY UCITS FUND in 2013.

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - SISSENER CANOPUS

Report from the Investment Manager

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - SISSENER CANOPUS (the Sub-Fund) was launched 4th May 2012. 2012 was the first year of operation for the Sub-Fund and the processes and practices necessary for optimal management of the Sub-Fund was put in place.

During the first month of operations the equity markets sold off as the market experienced growing concern for the development in the Euro-Zone. In this period the equity market exposure of the fund was moderate resulting in better performance than equity markets. After the ECB announced measures to stabilize the situation by the summer, markets improved. The Sub-Fund increased the equity exposure during the summer and gained performance. By year-end the Sub-Fund was among the best performing funds in the Morningstar-Category "Long-Short Equity Funds Global" for the last 6 months.

Among the largest holdings of the Sub-Fund were Renewable Energy Corporation convertible bond, Transocean, Storebrand and Nokia. Nokia and Transocean have been among the best contributors to the Sub-Fund performance of 2012.

Assets under Management increased throughout the year. The Sub-Fund has signed distribution agreements with two distributors marketing the Sub-Fund in Norway. Most of the year capital flows favored the bond market with little demand for equity related products. This changed to some degree towards the end of the year and the subscriptions to the fund gained some momentum.

The Sub-Fund achieved a return of 7.00% for the retail share class and 7.42% for the institutional share class in 2012. The Investment Manager continues to facilitate distribution of the Sub-Fund and the investment performance so far is helpful in that respect.

The Investment Manager expects the equity markets to improve during 2013 hand in hand with improving macro indicators. One important catalyst for improving macro environment is the US housing market where higher numbers of new building will lead to more new jobs, consumption and increased GNP growth. The Chinese economy seems to be improving after the mild slowdown in 2012. In Europe the Southern Euro-Zone countries are still struggling, but in the view of the Investment Manager the situation is stabilizing with far less risk for collapse than last year.

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS - G&P ORCA UCITS FUND

Report from the Investment Manager

For the Sub-Fund, 2012 was the first full calendar year that the Sub-Fund was active. The two active share-classes, NOK Institutional and NOK Retail, were down 3% and 5.23% respectively. The discrepancy in performance between the two share classes is explained by the NOK retail share-class activation in late January. The Sub-Fund ended the year with NOK 55,937,400.21 of assets under management, which is an increase of 46.6% compared to year-end the previous year.

We have built up throughout the year a portfolio of companies whose price trade at relatively attractive valuations when compared to either their asset values, their future discounted earnings/ cash flows or to their peers. At the same time we have always been wary of the many overhanging dangers in securities markets in 2012. An ever increasing sovereign debt burden, hidden inflation, wealth gaps, demographics in the Western World and geopolitical incidents are a few examples of what makes us uncomfortable. Therefore we have held substantial liquid positions and market hedges in our portfolio which we view as an “insurance policy”. These hedges are predominantly in index derivatives or equities.

We start 2013 on the same note as we ended 2012, with a portfolio of companies that have a healthy margin of safety (as Benjamin Graham coined it), and the “insurance policy” we insist upon in today’s treacherous and deceiving financial markets. We are fiduciaries for our investors that trust us with their capital, and our job is first and foremost to preserve this capital. We believe in the powers of compounded interest and we also believe that risk is not merely a number. Risk is the permanent loss of capital, and the great powers of compounded interest do not apply when there is a permanent loss of capital. As valuations have grown ever more expensive in tandem with an ever looser monetary policy from central bankers, so have under-valued companies been harder to come by. We see it as a prerequisite for success as an investment manager in this coming year to have an absolute return mindset and the tools available to generate these very absolute returns.

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS

Notes to the financial statements

as at 31st December 2012

Note 1 - Significant accounting policies

a) Presentation of the financial statements

The financial statements of the Company are established in accordance with the Luxembourg legal and regulatory requirements concerning undertakings for collective investment.

b) Valuation

- 1) Securities or money market instruments quoted or traded on an official stock exchange or any other regulated market, are valued on the basis of the last known price, and, if the securities or money market instruments are listed on several stock exchanges or regulated markets, the last known price of the stock exchange which is the principal market for the security or money market instrument in question, unless these prices are not representative.
- 2) For securities or money market instruments not quoted or traded on an official stock exchange or any other regulated market, and for quoted securities or money market instruments, but for which the last known price is not representative, valuation is based on the probable sales price estimated prudently and in good faith by the Board of Directors of the Company.
- 3) Units/ shares issued by open-ended investment funds are valued at their last available Net Asset Value.
- 4) The liquidating value of forward or options contracts that are not traded on exchanges or on other Regulated Markets is determined pursuant to the policies established in good faith by the Board of Directors, on a basis consistently applied. The liquidating value of futures or options contracts traded on exchanges or on other Regulated Markets is based upon the last available settlement prices of these contracts on exchanges and Regulated Markets on which the particular futures or options contracts are traded; provided that if a futures or options contract could not be liquidated on such Banking Day with respect to which a Net Asset Value is being determined, then the basis for determining the liquidating value of such contract shall be such value as the Board of Directors may, in good faith and pursuant to verifiable valuation procedures, deem fair and reasonable.
- 5) Liquid assets and money market instruments with a maturity of less than 12 months may be valued at nominal value plus any accrued interest or using an amortised cost method (it being understood that the method which is more likely to represent the fair market value will be retained). This amortised cost method may result in periods during which the value deviates from the price the relevant Sub-Fund would receive if it sold the investment. The investment managers may, from time to time, assess this method of valuation and recommend changes, where necessary, to ensure that such assets will be valued at their fair value as determined in good faith pursuant to procedures established by the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors believes that a deviation from the amortised cost per Share may result in material dilution or other unfair results to shareholders, the Board of Directors shall take such corrective action, if any, as it deems appropriate, to eliminate or reduce, to the extent reasonably practicable, the dilution or unfair results.
- 6) The swap transactions are consistently valued based on a calculation of the net present value of their expected cash flows.

SEB PRIME SOLUTIONS

as at 31st December 2012

7) All other securities and other permissible assets as well as any of the above mentioned assets for which the valuation in accordance with the above subparagraphs would not be possible or practicable, or would not be representative of their fair value, will be valued at fair market value, as determined in good faith pursuant to procedures established by the Board of Directors.

as at 31st December 2012

These fees are recorded under the caption "Management fees" in the "Statement of operations and other changes in net assets".

Note 4 - Performance fee

The Sub-Funds may also pay a performance fee to the Investment Manager.

The performance fee is calculated and accrued on each Valuation Day as an expense of the relevant Share Class and is payable to the Investment Manager in arrears at the end of each Calculation Period.

The performance fee is deemed to accrue on each Valuation Day. For each Calculation Period, the performance fee in respect of each Class of Share will be equal to the performance fee Rate multiplied by the appreciation in the Net Asset Value per each Share of that Class of any Sub-Fund during that Calculation Period above the Base Net Asset Value per each Share of that Class. The Base Net Asset Value per each Share Class is the greater of the Net Asset Value of that Share at the time of issue of that Share (adjusted with a prevailing Benchmark as outlined below, if applicable) and the highest Net Asset Value of that Share achieved as of the end of any previous Calculation Period (if any) during which such Share was in issue (adjusted with a prevailing Benchmark as outlined below, if applicable). The performance fee in respect of each Calculation Period will be calculated by reference to the Net Asset Value attributable to the Share before making any deduction for accrued performance fee.

The Benchmark is determined on each Valuation Day by taking the percentage difference between the Benchmark on such Valuation Day and the Benchmark at the end of the previous Calculation Period in which a performance fee was charged.

For some Share Classes as indicated in the below table, certain adjustments are made to reduce inequities that would occur for investors subscribing for Units at a time when the Net Asset Value per Unit is other than the Base Net Asset Value per Unit (Equalisation).
